Dublin, March 28.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, a Proclamation promising a Reward for apprehending Peter Lens, late of Dublin, Painter.

DEVONSHIRE,

Whereas the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembly, did, by their Resolution of the Tenth of this Month, Resolve, That an humble Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that he would please to order, that a Proclamation may issue, with a Reward, for apprehending Peter Lens.

And whereas it appears by several Examinations upon Oath, before the Lord Mayor of this City, That the said Peter Lens, Painter, lately come into this Kingdom, is charg'd with having several Times uttered profane and blasphemous Expressions.

We therefore having a just Abhorrence of such Impieties, and being determined strictly to put the Law in Execution against Immorality and Profaneness, do by this our Proclamation, publish and declare, That we will give the necessary Orders for the Payment of the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to such Person or Persons as shall take and secure the said Peter Lens, on or before the Twenty-fourth Day of June next, so as he may be proceeded against according to Law for such his Offence.

And we do hereby charge and command, all Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates and Officers, Civil and Military, in this Kingdom, and all other his Majesty's Loving Subjects, to use their utmost Diligence, in taking and securing the said Peter Lens, as they shall answer the contrary at their Peril.

His Armagh, Wyndham, C. John Dublin, Tho. Cabel, Meth, Cavan, Moleworth, Luncannon, Ar. Meath, C. Kildare, Hen. Boyle, Tho. Carter, Ja. Reynolds, Hen. King, Edw. Webb, Fra. Burton, Hen. Bingham, Lu. Gardiner, Tho. Pearce.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Devonshire with his Duchess, and Lady Caroline Cavendish, and the rest of his Family sailed on board the Yacht for England, to the great Grief the whole Nation; his Condescension, Generosity, Private and Publick Worth, and great Hospitality, having made him dear to every Lover of this Kingdom. No Circumstance of his Behaviour was more effectual in gaining the Good Will of our Nobility and Gentry, than his familiar Acceptance of their Invitations, and Honouring their Table with his Presence.

Last Saturday ended the Election at Waterford, for a Representative in Parliament for that City, and at the closing of the Books the Poll stood thus:

For Ambrose Congreve, Esq; 122
For Robert Carew, Esq; 117
And Ambrose Congreve, Esq; was declared duly elected.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, March 28. The Right Hon. the Marquis of Lothian is appointed his Majesty's High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland for the current Year, which is to meet the 11th of May next.

Andrew Faulds, Baron-Officer to Sir Michael Smart of Blachall, who was knock'd down by one Allason on the 13th Inst. at the Kirk of Mearns, five Miles West from Glasgow, is since dead of his Wounds.

Last Saturday the Duke and Duchess of Hamilton arrived at their House in the Abbey; and in a few Days they are to set out for London.

About 11 o'Clock on Friday Night last, two Centines of General Whetham's Regiment having got drunk in Black Friers Wynd, fell (both or one) upon one John Robison, Mason there, while entering his own Door in a peaceable Manner, and so severely cut and slash'd his Head and Hands with a Hanger, that

'tis fear'd he will not recover. The Magistrates are taking a Precognition of the Affair, the Fellow being in Custody.

At the same time that the three Ministers of the Associated Presbytery preached here last Wednesday, Mr. Nairn, Minister of Abbotshall in Fife, and Mr. Moncrief, of Abernethy in Perthshire, other two Members of that Presbytery, held forth to a very crowded Audience on a Heath near St. Andrew's; the former from Isaiah xxvi. 5, 7. the latter had his Text in Ezekiel; and both inveighed against the Tepidity and Indifference about Things sacred, and a general Apostasy from Virtue. Mr. Ebenezer Erskine of Stirling, and Mr. Fisher of Kinclie, had appointed their Followers at a Place 16 Miles West of Glasgow at the same Diet; but we have yet no Particulars. The three Ministers who were here, have been ever since at Linton in Tweeddale, comforting the good People of that Neighbourhood, where they are to ordain Elders, and provide for the Settlement of a young Preacher, who is to be ordained, and officiate there, for their long want of a Gospel Minister.

A Commission is now passing the Seals, appointing the Right Hon. James Earl of Morton, Lord Lieutenant of Orkney and Zetland.

We learn from Portsmouth, that Mr. Roger Hog of London, Merchant, was married the 14th Instant to Miss Rachel Miffing, Sister to Thomas Miffing of Stubington in the County of Hampshire, Esq; a virtuous, beautiful, and every way agreeable young Lady, and a 5000 l. Fortune.

General Guist having readily delivered up the two Centinels to a Trial by the civil Power, who were taken up as guilty of premeditate Murder and Ham-sucken against John Robertson on Friday Night last; the Magistrates went Yesterday on the Precognition, which comes chiefly out against Robert Lochley, Grenadier, an Irishman; as if he and John Urquhart, Cook to a Vintner in this City, who is said to keep a disorderly House, out of which they had immediately come in Company with some lewd Women, and alledging the Neighbourhood had affrained them, they forcibly entered Mr. Robertson's House, the former with his Hanger drawn, &c. 'Tis thought if Mr. Robertson does not fever he will recover, though doubtless he will lose his left Hand.

P. S. On a further Precognition this Forenoon, the Magistrates ordered Lochley to the Tolbooth till further Orders; Urquhart, who confesses now what he denied Yesternight, is sent back to the Guard, and Turnbull to his Regiment.

The Masters and Mariners of several Ships belonging to Glasgow, Ayr, Irwin, &c. are gone up to London to prove the Allegations of their Petition, which we are told consists of 42 Articles.

Sunday last after Sermons, a vicious (or mad) Dog, attacked several Persons while walking in the Quaker's Gardens in the Abbey, which bit and tore the Clothes of a Girl of the Name of Hodge, and in generously rescuing her, Mr. Alexander Campbell, Book-keeper to Mess. Elliot and Simson, was bit by that Beast in the Shoulder, and had his Clothes tore to Rags; he also bit two Gardener Lads, and several others, besides all the Dogs that came in his Way. 'Tis said the Beast was hounded; but if so, it cannot be thought it was by his Master, whose Principles never allow acting on the Offensive. The Beast was immediately shot in his Kennel, and some of those wounded have been dipt in the Firth. All the Dogs that were bit have been knocked on the Head.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Derby, March 30. This Day about One o'Clock, Richard Woodward was executed here for being concerned with James Giddens (who was also executed at Nottingham on Friday last) for robbing on the Highway. During the time he lay under Sentence of Death, he was frequently visited by the Rev. Mr. Locket, Mr. Cantrel, and Mr. Christi; who in their Turns, took a great deal of Pains to assist him in his Preparation for another World. He never seem'd terrify'd at his approaching Fate, and often said, he long'd for the Time of his Death. The Morning he suffer'd, the Rev. Mr. Cantrel preached a Sermon to him, (as the other Gentlemen had also done before) after Service, a Paper drawn up of his Behaviour and what he had confess'd, was read over to him, and was ask'd by the Rev. Gentlemen above, whether every thing therein contained was true? he said Yes; immediately after he dress'd himself in his Shroud, being assisted therein by his Brother, and walk'd to the Place of Execution, being attended thither by two of the Divines above-mentioned; after Prayer was over, the Rev. Mr. Locket told him, it would be very proper for him to acknowledge his Crimes publicly, and to warn and exhort the Spectators, to which he made no Reply; then he was ask'd, whether the Paper, then in Mr. Locket's Hand, was his true Confession? he said Yes; which was all he was heard to say at the Place of Execution.

Exon, March 31. On Saturday last ended the Assize for the County of Devon, when the 6 following Malefactors received Sentence of Death; Richard Perkins, John Ireland and Richard Webb, for Horse-stealing; and Joseph Crabb, Joseph Binney, and Joseph Stewart, for House-breaking; but Perkins, Crabb, Binney and Stewart, are since reprieved for Transportation. Interest was made for Webb, but his Lordship, by Mistake, reprieved Perkins instead of Webb: However an Express with a Letter overtook his Lordship, who was pleased to say, he would consider of the Affair, and send Instructions to the Sheriff.

Rich Lee, Henry Richards, Bartholomew Counter, John Oatway alias Harding, Hannah Harding, Elizabeth the Wife of John Hawkeridge, Robert Newberry, Walter Radford and Thomas Colwell, were ordered for Transportation.

Richard Nibbles, John Turner and Mary the Wife of John Horden for having two Husbands, were burnt in the Hand; and Thomas Harris was whipt.

Mary Clark, John Gribble, Patience Richards, Ann Palmer alias Hunt, Michael Royal, Robert Brewer, Eliz. Rice and Wm. Niles, were acquitted.

Agnes Saunders, Edward Hayes and John Vincorne were discharged upon their Bills being returned Ignoramus; and William Wallen and Philip Davis were discharged for want of Prosecution.

Sampson Tepper was ordered for Transportation pursuant to the Secretary of State's Letter.

John Bennett and William Rowell were to remain on the former Orders; and Susannah Whityear to remain pursuant to her Commitment.

Robert Brewer (one of the above that was acquitted) was indicted for breaking the Legs of two Sheep, which Offence is made Capital, and the Party to suffer Death without the Benefit of the Clergy. He was likewise indicted for a Misdemeanor, in cutting off the Tails of Bullocks, and the Ears of Horses, which was done the same Night the Sheep's Legs were broke, and in the same Ground; but as no positive Proof appeared upon the first Indictment, he was likewise acquitted of the last.

Worcester, March 30. On Tuesday Evening ended our Assizes, when the five following received Sentence of Death, viz. Edward Rowley, for returning from Transportation; Thomas Hill, William Taylor alias Emerson, John Matthews, and James Woodward, for Horse-stealing, but the two last reprieved in order for Transportation. Five to be transported, viz. Mary Bissell, David Edwards, Edward, George and Adam Godard, for House-breaking and Felony. Four burnt in the Hand, viz. Tho. Broadwas, Fra. Wheeler, John Green, for Felonies; and William Rhodes, for Manslaughter. Four Men and one Woman order'd to be whipt, for Theft. Two Women and a Man fined, for rescuing a Prisoner from the Constable; and several acquitted.

In this City Gaol, Elizabeth Morris and James Griffits, for breaking open and rifling some Packs at the Bell and Unicorn, were sentenced to be transported.

Bristol, April 1. Our Merchants have Letters from on board the Tewksbury, Capt. Bryant, trading at Abonoe, on the Gold Coast of Guinea, that in her Passage from Boston, where she was lately built on Purpose for the Slave Trade, the chieftest Part of her Crew mutiny'd, murder'd their Captain, and design'd to go on the Pyratical Account; but by the Vigilance and good Conduct of the chief Mate, and several of the Hands who were not in this wicked Conspiracy, he rescue'd the Ship, to the great Satisfaction of the Owners, and hang'd seven of the Ringleaders on the Gold Coast.

Last Saturday at the General Gaol Delivery for this City and County, Thomas Bonn, Ship Carpenter, received Sentence of Death, for breaking open a Box, and stealing four Gold Rings, and 60 l. in Money, out of the House of Mr. Tiladams, in Wapping. The Death Warrant is come down to Newgate for his Execution on Friday next. He is now very ill.

Eleanor Clement and Anne Phillips, were indicted, the former for robbing her Master Mr. Lanning, of a considerable Quantity of old Pewter; and the other for receiving and disposing of it, knowing it to be stolen; the former to be transported for seven Years, and the latter (the Receiver) for fourteen: Mr. Lanning was so very favourable in his Prosecution, that he swore but to the Value of 4 a. 10 d. which saved both their Lives. The Receiver had sold no less than five Parcels of Pewter at one Shop, besides other Parcels to different Places.

Four others were ordered to be transported for seven Years.

Thomas Shorey, for taking up Goods in Alderman Elton's Name, is ordered to stand in the Pillory this Day, and to suffer three Months Imprisonment.

Thomas Bennet alias Boyle, and John Elmore alias Grecian Walker, for forging the Mayor's Hand to a Piss, were fin'd 6 s. 8 d. each, and to suffer three Months Imprisonment.

On Wednesday last John Talbot was taken up by the Temple Watch and committed to Bridewell by the Right Worshipful the Mayor, for attempting to commit the detestable Sin of Sodomy with Wm. Gale, who made an Information against Talbot for the said Assault. This Talbot was one of the Fellows that was taken up with Roger Johnson, alias Mary Fly, and detain'd in Bridewell some time since, on Suspicion of robbing and almost murdering Mr. Ballard the Surgeon, of Pauberry, in Roundham Wood; when upon searching their Pockets, there was found a Letter directed to Edwards the Sodomite, who lately, tho' unexpectedly, died in his Bed at Thornbury, and also a List of the black Gang of those Villains, from whom they wanted a Collection of Money to pay their Expences back to London.

LONDON.

Yesterday Morning the Justices met for the Tower Division in the County of Middlesex, at the Court-house in Whitechapel, when Colonel Martin in the Chair, gave a very handsome extempore Charge to a great Number of Constables and Headboroughs then attending, exhorting them to put the Laws in Execution against retailing spirituous Liquors, and to prevent any Insult or Abuse being offered to the Informers.

At the Assizes at Stafford the following Persons were capitally convicted, viz. Charles Winner for sending a threatening Letter, David Price and Charles Cadman for several Robberies. Richard Tedd, Francis Wild, and Benjamin Price, were cast for Transportation. George Wright for having two Wives was burnt in the Hand; as was also Thomas Rowlowsions for stealing of Sheep; and two were ordered to be whipped.

Last Sunday Night died much lamented, of the Small-Pox, the Lady of Sir Charles Mordaunt, Knight of the Shire for the County of Warwick, at his House in Thrift-street, Soho. She was Daughter of the late Sir John Woodhouse.

Yesterday about 5 o'Clock in the Evening, their Graces the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire arrived at their House in Piccadilly with a numerous Retinue from Ireland; and soon after his Grace waited on his Majesty at St. James's, and was graciously received.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, attended by the Governors of the several Hospitals, went to St. Bride's Church and heard a Sermon preached by the Lord Bishop of Oxford, the Children belonging to the several Hospitals walked in Procession; after which the Lord Mayor gave a grand Entertainment at Grocers Hall to divers of the Nobility and Gentry; and at Night a Ball.

A Journey through the World: In a View of the several Stages of Human Life.

CONTAINING,

I. An Examination into the Beginning of our Existence, or coming into the World.

II. Directions to those who have the Government of Children, how to guard them in those innocent Days against the Corruptions, which presently offer themselves thereby to deprive them of that Innocence that they are then endued with.

III. Instructions to those of further Years, how to employ their Time innocently, and to guard against being led into the Way of Destruction.

IV. Endeavours to confirm and strengthen those of riper Years, in Ways of Religion and Virtue.

V. Persuasions to such who have been overcome by bad Examples, or enticing Gratification, and who are thereby in the Snare of the Devil, to return speedily from their present imminent Danger to a hearty Sorrow for their lost Time, and to make good the great Business for which they were sent into the World.

VI. Encouragements to all to preserve in a Course of Godliness without Weariness.

VII. The Advantages that will be reaped by a Holy Life: Adapted to common Capacities, and fit for all Sorts and Conditions of Men.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE; from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VAPOR, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLADS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconveniences, as loudly to bespeak it the only opposite Remedy or true Venerable Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands are to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomph'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it fuses no lurking VENOM to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt, they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it abhors no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all Scrofulick, Scrophulous, and even leprosous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medidine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-Syphilicon, is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAFFERTY's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venerel Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venerel Pot is inclytly rooted out of their Bodies.

Note. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
